Collection of Fees

Plan Review Fees – Plan review fees shall be collected or arrangements made for collection prior to issuance of any building or fire permits.

Inspection Fees (New Construction) – In the event additional fees are required to be assessed during a construction project, any and all fees must be paid in full prior to the issuance of the buildings Certificate of Occupancy. Occupying a building that has not been issued a Certificate of Occupancy will constitute a civil penalty for each days continued offense.

Inspection Fees (Existing Buildings) – The fee for an inspection of an existing building shall be assessed and an invoice will be supplied to the owner, occupant, or designee. Subjects will have thirty (30) days to remit payment. After 30 days the bill will be placed in a past due status and a second invoice will be sent to the subject. After a period of sixty (60) days of non-payment, the account will be subject to a 10% late fee and the account will be placed on hold and no additional inspections or permits will be issued, civil action will be taken through the court system after a period of 90 days.

Civil Penalties

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of the N.C. Fire Prevention Code, or fail to comply therewith, or who shall violate or fail to comply with any order made there under, or who shall build in violation of any detailed statement of specifications or plans submitted and approved there under or any certificate or permit issued there under, shall be subject to penalties as specified below as approved by the Brunswick County Board of Commissioners. These penalties shall be recovered by the County in a Civil Action in the nature of debt if the offender does not pay the penalties within a period of 30 days after the issuance of the notice of violation. The notice of violation shall be in writing, signed by the Fire Marshal and/or the Fire Official charged with the enforcement of the N.C. Fire Prevention Code and shall be delivered or mailed to the offender either at his/her residence or place of business or at the location where the violation occurred. Each day's continuing violation shall be a separate and distinct offense. Any action to recover such penalties may be joined in an action for appropriate equitable remedy, including injunctions and orders of abatement and including an action to recover damages by the County in abating, correcting, limiting, and otherwise dealing with the harmful effects of the offending action. Civil penalties are assessed in accordance with North Carolina G.S. 153A and G.S. 160A.

Civil Penalty Schedule
